PRIMER
JOINT RESOURCE MANAGEMENT COURSE (JRMC-18)
05 JAN 26 TO 17 JAN 26

Introduction

1. College of Defence Management is one of the nation's Centre of Excellence in defence management studies. The aim of this premier institution is to propagate contemporary management thoughts among Armed Forces officers in order to enhance operational effectiveness of the Armed Forces particularly when the nature of conflict is undergoing a paradigm shift with the hitherto accepted principles of war being constantly challenged.

2. The Joint Resource Management Course is conducted for defence officers of the rank of Major / Lt Col and their equivalent in Navy and Air Force with a view to expose participants to contemporary management concepts and associated techniques so as to offer them an opportunity to expand their cognitive horizons on selected themes related to management in the Armed Forces.

3. The JRMC aims to develop qualified 'Resource Managers' who can deliver and sustain efficient and responsive value chains towards planned defence capability build up. As enablers, the participants would be made aware of various related Financial Management / Supply Chain Management concepts, aspects related to management of inventory, the Defence Acquisition Procedure (DAP), the Defence Procurement Manual (DPM), the Delegated Financial Powers for Defence Services (DFPDS-2021) and various decision tools for resource management like Analytical Hierarchy Process, Systems Thinking and Data Analytics. The MDP would also encourage practical learning through peer learning.

Aim

4. The aim of this primer is to orient participants towards the scope of coverage of subject content during the JRMC and the intended outcomes post undergoing the Course as well as generate interest in the Course so that they may undertake self-study to enhance their knowledge thus being better prepared for the Course.

Course Objectives

5. The program aims at empowering 'Resource Managers' from tri-services in understanding the nuances of resource management in the Defence, to include: -

- 5.1. To promote application of modern management concepts and techniques to achieve operational effectiveness.
- 5.2. To develop expertise in matters related to management of resources, in a joint environment.
- 5.3. To promote ability to analyse issues related to resource management logically and scientifically to generate viable options for the organisations.
- 5.4. Empower participants to advise Commanders on matters related to resource management based on scientific decision-making tools.
- 5.5. To promote peer learning and adopt best practices prevalent in sister services.

Methodology for Conduct of MDP

6. The pedagogy of teaching at the CDM has been designed to be dynamic with focus on participative and interactive learning. It provides for a productive and intellectually stimulating learning experience in the form of lectures, class room discussions, guest lectures from professionals, external visit, hands on experience, peer to peer learning and focussed group discussions. The course curriculum will be run from Mon to Sat from 0800h-1400h with post lunch sessions on Wednesday and as required (1530h-1700h).
